THE CLOSED ROAD,
A WONDERFUL PLAY, PASTIME TODAY ONLY

The Pastime theater has as its attraction for today only one of the most remarkable dramatic pictures ever released by the World Film Corporation, entitled, "The Closed Road." A startling original drama of suspense and intensity uncommon to stage and screen is interpreted by a cast of stars whose magnitude far above the usual standard of pictures features, headed by House Peters and Barbara Tennant, two shining lights of filmdom.

This easily one of the best pictures that has been shown in the city and the layers of good photoplays should by all means see this wonderful picture.

A STRONG PLAY ON AT THE LYRIC
THEATER TODAY ONLY

"The Devil's Prayer-Book," a George Kleine film photo of five reels, released through Kleine-Edison feature service, which will be offered at the Lyric theater today, comes preceded by reliable advance information to the effect that it is really one of the best and most pretentious pictures of the year. The plot is strong, the act is told on the film in a satisfying manner, and there are many tense, dramatic situations leading to a powerful climax. Arthur Hoops and Alma Hanlon are featured in the star roles.

COLOMBO HALL NOW IN BEST CONDITION

The well-known hall on North Second street, Colombo hall, where popular dances are held practically every Saturday night, has just been thoroughly renovated and cleaned and the floor waxed in the most perfect manner. The management is well pleased over the work done and claim for the Colombo the best hall for dancing purposes in the city.
